(b) their affiliation to terrorist groups in India and steps being taken to liquidate them; and

(c) what steps have been taken to ensure that youths from terrorist affected States are motivated not to joint terrorist cadres?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) A total of 220 infiltrators/militants were killed and 7628 infiltrators/militants apprehended by the security forces during the year 2005 (till October).

(b) The majority of infiltrating terrorists were affiliated to Hizb-ul-Mujahideen, Lashkar-e-Toaiba and Jais-e-Mohammed groups. The Government have adopted a comprehensive multi-pronged approach to contain cross-border infiltration which includes, inter-alia, strengthening of border management and multi-tiered and multi-modal deployment along the borders, construction of border fencing, improved technologies, weapons and equipment for security forces, improved intelligence and operational coordination and synergising intelligence flow to check infiltration.

(c) Security Forces have been undertaking civic action programmes in their areas of deployment to promote a sense of national integration among the people and to establish friendly relationship with them. The border population and especially the youth are counselled and motivated so as to keep them away from the influence of terrorists organizations.

Police raid on massage parlours

3120. DR. GYAN PRAKASH PILANIA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether massage parlours in Delhi have been found indulging in sex trade and hence police have raided a few of them and caught red-handed the culprits;

(b) if so, the details thereof, during past three years;

(c) the extent and ramification of sex-racket being operated by these psuedo massage parlours;

(d) whether girls of foreign origin have also found indulging in these nefarious activities;

(e) if so, the details thereof; and

(f) what steps Government contemplate to take to curb such illegal, immoral, anti-social activities of massage parlours in Delhi?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) and (b) The requisite information is given below:—

Year	Number of massage parlour found to be indulging in sex trade	Number of call girls and other persons arrested
2002	1	7
2003	2	11
2004	4	20
2005 (upto 15th November)	3	14

(c) The sex rackets in massage parlours and other places have now become very sophisticated where the women need not be kept confined for such immoral activities as was done in the past. The availability of mobile phone has facilitated the movement of customers and call girls.

(d) and (e) No girl of foreign origin has been found indulging in sex trade in massage parlour. However, incidents of involvement of foreign girls in sex trade at hotels, guest houses and other places had come to notice in 2003 and 2004.

(f) Delhi Police has taken a number of steps to curb such activities which include regular briefing of police personnel to keep watch on antisocial elements suspected to be indulging in such type of crime; checking of massage parlours/hotels/guest houses involved or suspected to be involved in such crime; collection of intelligence and talking of preventive action against persons involved or suspected to be involved in sex trade; soliciting cooperation of public and social organisations to get information of such activities; etc.
